ADDENDUM NO. 1

In May 1977 the address of this building was changed to 2339 W. Case Road.

In the book of campus maps in the University Archives, Sheet DS 88 shows two circular outlines north of Building 321. Both were erected for Farm Science Review purposes. The one to the left is a concrete silo base only. The one to the right is the "silo-type structure" referred to in E above, and is used for grain storage as a part of Building 321. This had a grain elevator leg 51 feet high, probably on the south side, which was built prior to November 1966. When Building 321 was built, the elevator leg was removed and replaced by an elevator within the new portion of Building 321.
